Service Project with the Wrightsville Beach Police Department-

Last week we had a great visit from Officer Sean, Officer Thomas and Officer Gunner. We learned that police officers are our friends and their job is to help keep everyone safe. Sometimes we know that children get lost, hurt or scared and we know that the police will help them. We decided that it would be very nice if the police had some “comfort toys” in their trunk to give to children in these situations. If your child would like to participate in this special way, we will be collecting new or “like brand new” stuffed animals (small to medium size) for the police to have at the ready to help children in need of a little extra loving care in a tough situation. I think each of our preschoolers will be happy to know that they have given a gift to the police that they will use for a special child in time of need.

THANK YOU! THANK YOU! THANK YOU!

To Jessi Oester (Ada’s Mom), for being our special visitor during Nn Week to teach us all about the special job of being nurse. This tied in perfectly with our Occupations Theme last month.

To Kerry Murphey (Cooper’s Mom) for visiting during “Oo” Week to read a story and talk to us about opposites. Great practice for learning how words can relate to one another.

To Satira Hickok (Sage’s Mom) for scheduling officers from the Wrightsville Beach Police Dept to visit during “Pp” Week. The children enjoyed getting to know these community helpers as they did an outstanding job of relaying to the children the many duties a police officer in performs! The kids also appreciated the great goody bags from the Police Department, and of course one of the highlights was getting to check out the police car!

To Skyla Scarzella (Riley’s Mom) and Jessica Horne (Easton’s Mom) who introduced the letter Qq to us by pretending our sandbox was a “Quarry” and the children hunted for quartz. I’m sure they will be finding more quartz for weeks to come!!

...Sunday March 11th, 2:00 am!!!!
