Living Out the Mission in a Covid World

In my office is a reproduction of the church logo. You know the one. It is on the front of the bulletin. There's a person standing up, lifting their arms toward the sky in the shape of a tree. There is water in the foreground, a dove to the side, and fruit growing on the tree's branches. Underneath the picture on the bulletin we have the church slogan, "Deep Roots, Bountiful Fruit... It Happens Here."

There are places around the church building and on the church website that tell you the story of what each symbol in the logo represents. For instance, the dove represents the Holy Spirit. The water represents the area where the church is located. But, I keep staring at the leaves on the tree. There are these red fruits growing among them. But, what about the leaves themselves? What could they represent?

At the end of the book of Revelation we learn that there is a new heaven and a new earth and even a new garden that has a lot of the same elements of the first Garden of Eden in Genesis. Included in this garden is the Tree of Life "with its twelve kinds of fruits, producing its fruit each month." (Rev. 22:2) That verse goes on to say, "and the leaves of the tree are for the healing of the nations."

Revelation, of course, is filled with wild imagery and metaphors. So, what does it mean to say that the leaves of the tree are for the healing of the nations? Could this be the cure for Covid? For Alzheimer's? For Cancer? Maybe. But, I don't think that the verse is literally talking about physical healing. When it talks about the healing of the nations, I think about it healing the divisions that separate people into groups.

There are so many groups in America and in the church right now; and many are at odds with one another. Vaccinated and Unvaccinated. Progressives and Traditionalists. Black and White. Young and Old. Liberal and Conservative. Coke and Pepsi. The list goes on.

So, let me read it again. "The leaves of the tree are for the healing of the nations." If heaven on earth at the end of time is going to have a tree that heals what divides us, then that says to me that the Church has a role to play today so that God's will may be done "on earth as it is in heaven." This isn't something we should simply hope for or strive for; but rather something we should actually be producing. Healing. Of the things that separate people.

I'll admit that I sometimes struggle with this. It is hard to be prophetic and pastoral at the same time. To push people and care for people. Sometimes the same sentence that feels like the perfect salve to one person is perfectly annoying to the next. But, I am reminded that God has called us to the "ministry of reconciliation" as Paul says in 2 Corinthians. And, therefore, as a church, we should be bridge builders helping to bring people together with God and with each other. With so much dividing us in the country, in our community, and sometimes even in our church, let us be like the leaves on the Tree of Life and bring healing to the nations. In the name of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit. Amen.

May the Peace of Christ be with you,
Pastor Doug

Haley's Comment

Dear Wrightsville UMC family and friends,

It is my joy and privilege to serve our church as part-time Associate Pastor/Minister of Visitation. We are slowly getting settled into our home in Leland. My wife, Binky, and I are grateful for the warm welcome we have received from all the Wrightsville UMC family. I am especially grateful for the privilege of working with Pastor Doug, Pastor Julia, and all our impressive and wonderful staff.

When I first visited Wrightsville UMC 16 years ago to attend a wedding, I never had any idea that I would have the opportunity to serve this great church. And yet, here I am, semi-retired, and enjoying so much working among you. God often has blessings in store for us that we can't imagine. As the Bible says: "Things which eye has not seen and ear has not heard, And which have not entered the human heart, All that God has prepared for those who love Him." (2 Corinthians 2:9) This is also our great hope as believers when we go through the trials and challenges of life like COVID. God assures us that this is not the final chapter of human existence. God gives us a hope and a future.

I look forward to getting on board with the great work that our church does in supporting the Rotifunk Hospital in Sierra Leone. Also, I will be able to share some additional mission trip opportunities in the future. Binky and I have long been involved in mission work in El Salvador in Central America and in Sri Lanka in South Asia. In fact we were on the ground in January 2005 right after the Asian tsunami to be on the front lines of relief work in Sri Lanka.

Thank you again for warmly welcoming us into the Wrightsville UMC family. We love being here!

Blessings,

Pastor David

Food donations for the summer have been slow, but we are SO very happy and proud that Wrightsville UMC has continued the weekly collection of food! Just recently 120 bags were delivered to the Cupboard! Also, you are one of the top churches for monetary congregational gifts! We still average 200+ families that we serve each week. Around 25% of those served are 18 years old and under. Thank you so very much for helping us to continue providing food for our needy neighbors!
